

Importance of biosecurity in crisis management

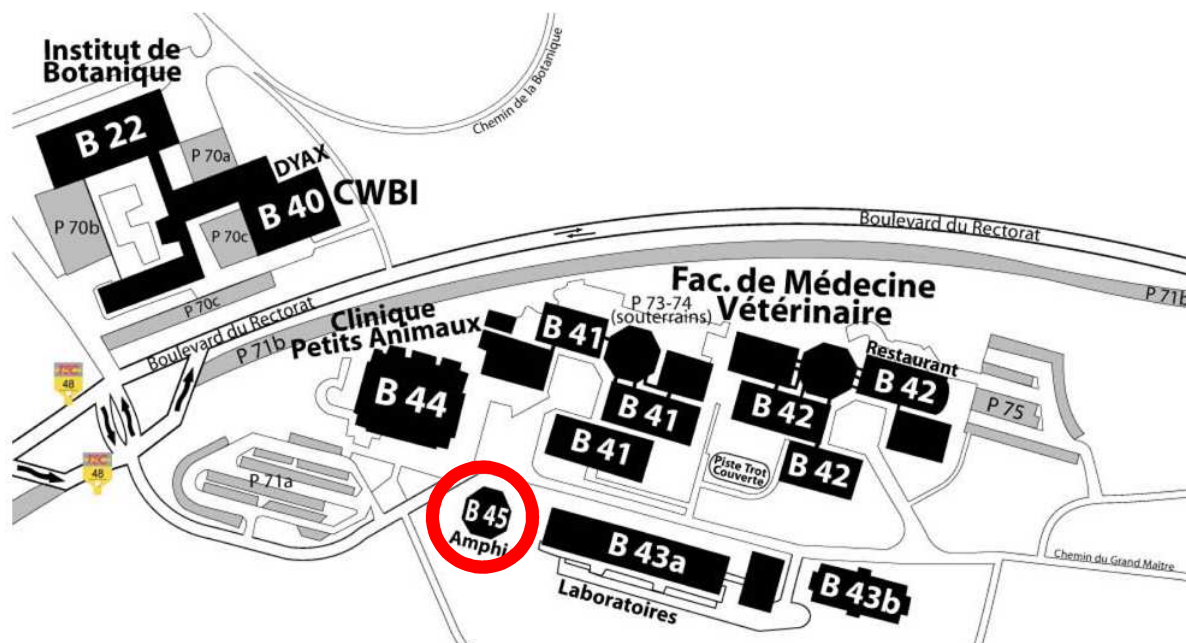

Co-organised by the Faculty Biosecurity Unit (CFB) and the Department of Occupational Protection and Hygiene (SUPHT), ULiege

PROGRAMME

- 10h00 Welcome (Prof. Claude Saegerman), President of the CFB
- 10h05 Importance of biosecurity in the management of African horse sickness - Prof. Alan GUTHRIE - Equine Research Center, University of Pretoria, South Africa
- 10h50 Importance of biosecurity in the management of avian chlamydiosis in a veterinary teaching hospital - Prof. Jean-Pierre VAILLANCOURT - Avian Medicine, Department of Clinical Sciences, FVM / Research group in Epidemiology of Zoonoses and Public health / Public Health Research Institute / Research Center in swine and avian infectious diseases, University of Montreal, Canada
- 11h35 Importance of biosecurity in the management of foot-and-mouth disease - Dr. Fred LANDEG - former UK Chief Veterinary Officer, DEFRA, United Kingdom
- 12h20 Question and answer session
- 12h30 Lunch (salle Polyvalente, B45)
- 13h30 Parallel interactive workshops:
- African horse sickness (Prof. A. Guthrie)
 - Avian chlamydiosis (Prof. J.-P. Vaillancourt)
 - Foot-and-mouth disease (Dr. F. Landeg)
 - Management of a lab incident in a BSL2 (Dr C. Grignet, ULiege Biosafety Officer, and Dr C. Surleraux, Occupational Health Physician / SPMT-ARISTA) [in French]
- 15h30 Coffee break
- 16h00 Sharing and exchange on workshops experience + questions
- 16h50 Conclusions (CFB)

Practical information

Venue: Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, Amphi C (B45)
Avenue de Cureghem, 4 – Quartier Vallée 2
4000 Liège Sart-Tilman

REGISTRATION ONLINE BEFORE JANUARY 20, 2018

through the following link:

<http://limesurvey.aesa-epid.be/index.php/254136?lang=en>

	Fee
Student	Free
Staff - Faculty of Veterinary Medicine and ULiege	Free
Other	80.00 €

For doctoral students: 1 ECTS